

The “delight in the cup” signed by Caffè Haiti Roma at Sanit 2017

This year Sanit will change its location (it will be held from 20th to 22nd October at the Guido Reni District in Rome) but not its mission: prevention and promotion of a healthy lifestyle, an exhibition area where it will be possible to meet the operators and benefit from a series of free check-ups and nutritional advices, everything being supported by associations, renowned chefs and by many talented companies that with their products contribute to the huge work of awareness began in 2004.

Caffè Haiti Roma, historical roasting company supported by a solid history of craftsmanship, finds its collocation in such context and, present with its coffee blends in the everyday life of many coffee lovers, since 1950 has been giving importance to such a small thing like the coffee bean, in search of the best origins and processing it with the same dedication of maestro roasters. In fact, it is no coincidence that for the seventh time Caffè Haiti Roma will be present at Sanit, to widespread also there the message of quality and ethics contained inside its delicious coffee blends.
